

MUSEUMS IN FRANCE

CITÉ DE L'AUTOMOBILE

This museum take you through the story of the motor car from 1878 to today. Gleaming De Dions, Panhards, Benzs and Rolls Royce mark the beginning of the story; Formula 1 cars are heavily represented and the story continues on through to the present day lighter, fuel-efficient cars for the mass market. It also has the largest collection of Bugattis.

15 Rue de l'Épée, 68100
Mulhouse | France

www.citedelautomobile.com

LE MANOIR DE L'AUTOMOBILE

More than 400 cars, including the largest collection of Renault Dauphines and Formula 1 cars outside Donnington in the UK, make up this museum in Brittany. It was started around 2002 by Michel Hommell who had been collecting cars since he was 18 years old.

4 Rue de la Cour Neuve,
35550 Lohéac | France

www.manoir-automobile.fr

INTERESTED IN ADVERTISING IN OUR NEXT EBOOK?

Contact us at info@erclassics.com

A great opportunity to reach over 100.000 classic car enthusiasts for classic car travelcompanies, insurance companies, hotels etc.

MUSEUMS IN FRANCE

MUSÉE AUTOMOBILE DE REIMS- CHAMPAGNE

With over 2030 vehicles, many of them put on permanent display here by the private owners, the collection is a real mix. 160 cars, 70 old bicycles, 100 pedal cars and thousands of miniature cars make this a family attraction.

84 Av. Georges Clemenceau,
51100 Reims, France

www.musee-automobile-reims-champagne.com

MUSÉE DE L'AVENTURE PEUGEOT

On display are treasures like the 1891 Vis-à-Vis, the first gasoline engine car, the Baby Peugeot, little cars like the Quadrilette 161 followed by the illustrious Landalet 184 of the 1920s. It takes you up through the production of the cabriolets like the 401, 601 and 402 to the 205.

Carr de l'Europe, 25600
Sochaux, France

www.museepeugeot.com

VIEW OUR STOCK

www.ERclassics.com